

ROBERTSON, JOHNSON,
MILLER & WILLIAMSON

Richard G. Campbell

Of Counsel

Mr. Campbell grew up in northern Nevada and practices primarily in the areas of administrative law representing clients before administrative agencies and handling judicial appeals of agency decisions and litigation focused on real estate disputes and construction defect cases.

Practice Areas

Administrative Law, Commercial & Complex Civil Litigation

Richard Campbell, Jr. is admitted to practice in Nevada. He joins our firm with over 45 years of legal experience helping businesses and individuals with their legal needs.

Mr. Campbell has appeared in numerous cases in district courts in Washoe County, Clark County and most of the rural counties, as well as the Federal District Court and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. His clients have included The State of Nevada Public Works Board, several counties and municipalities, gaming companies, real estate development companies, public utility companies, natural gas pipeline companies, small businesses and individuals in a plethora of different types of law.

Mr. Campbell has also practiced before numerous state agencies including the Nevada

Public Utilities Commission, the Nevada State Engineer, the Private Investigators Licensing Bureau, The State Engineers Board and the Nevada Medical Examiners Board. At present his practice is focused on administrative law representing clients before administrative agencies and handling judicial appeals of agency decisions and litigation focused on real estate disputes and construction defect cases.

Mr. Campbell earned his Bachelor of Arts from Montana State University and went on to obtain his Juris Doctorate from Gonzaga University School of Law.

Education

- Gonzaga University School of Law JD
- Montana State University BA

Admissions

- Nevada - All state courts
- Nevada - All federal courts
- Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals

Affiliations

Washoe County Bar Association